

Assignment 9 (Unit 5-5)

Comparing Two Reserve Schedules

This assignment is designed to show you what a reserve schedule looks like and the type of information you can find on a typical reserve schedule.

You will compare pages from two different reserve schedules for the High Bar First Nation to get an idea of how important they can be for reserve history research.

The first is a 1938 reserve schedule. The second is a 1943 reserve schedule.

Instructions

1. First, print the instructions. Look carefully at the first reserve schedule on page 2 of this assignment and answer the questions. If you need to enlarge the document, adjust the size by clicking the “View” tab located on your toolbar and click on zoom to achieve the desired magnification.
2. Next, look at the second reserve schedule on page 4 of this assignment and answer the questions on pages 5 and 6.
