

Assignment 3

Researching INAC's Website

This assignment will take you through the Indigenous and Northern Affairs Canada's First Nations Profiles online search tool to access information about the Skawahlook First Nation's current reserves.

Instructions

1. To begin the assignment, print these instructions if you wish (current page only).
2. Open your web browser and type "Google" into the search window.
3. In the Google search window, type "INAC and First Nations Profiles."
4. When the results appear, click the "First Nations Profiles" item.
5. On the homepage, look for the blue bar on the right side of your screen titled "Search FNP." Click on "First Nation."
6. Underneath the interactive map and list of provinces, type "Skawahlook" in the "Name" window and click "search."
7. On the page titled "List of First Nations," click on "Skawahlook First Nation," highlighted in blue.
8. On the page titled "First Nation Detail," click on the box under "General Information" titled "Reserves."
9. You should see a new page which lists all three current Skawahlook reserves, along with the official reserve numbers, locations, and sizes. Record this information in the space provided on the next page of this document.
10. Return to the "First Nations Profiles" homepage by clicking on that title near the top of your page, just below the page header.
11. When you have completed this assignment, remember to save your work, close the assignment, and return to Unit 4-5 of the course.
